*The $12,000 cash prize purse is based on 60 teams. Registration is based on a First Come First Serve basis. The total cash prize purse will decrease if less than 60 teams are received. The following formula will be used to determine prize distribution. Teams will be advanced $5000 worth of non-value tournament gaming chips which shall be used for scoring purposes only. Players will carry forward their chips throughout the tournament

TOURNAMENT TIMETABLE

Saturday

10:00 am to 10:45am Registration and Orientation
11:00 am Tournament Starts

OFFICIAL TOURNAMENT RULES

1. The tournament will be played in accordance with the approved rules of the game, which are currently used in the casino. The option to "Chop or Straddle" will not be allowed
2. Only Casino Nova Scotia gaming equipment will be allowed on the tournament tables during play.
3. Participants will be required to wear a tournament name badge to enter the tournament area and at all times during play. No substitution of players will be allowed.
4. A guest may be eliminated from play if they violate tournament rules, in which case they must leave the tournament area. The official tournament language is English.
5. To determine the table and position a player sits during a round, each player will draw a card which shows the table and seat number.
6. All players will be advanced 2500 in non-value chips. Teams may not be eliminated in round 1(ladies) as partner's chips (men) will be used in level 2 (less missed blinds in round 1) Chips from the previous round will be carried forward.
7. Blinds will increase after every 30 minutes. The management reserves the right to alter limits as time requires. All chips must be kept in sight, stacked by color, and may not be removed from the table.
8. Single knockout event tables will decrease proportionally as players are eliminated and will continue until one player is left.
9. Players absent from the table will have their Blind Bets and antes placed by the dealer.
10. There are unlimited raises per betting round. At any time the player may bet equal to the big blind, higher than the big blind, or go all in.
11. Following the announcement to end the current betting level, the new level begins with the next hand. A hand is deemed to have started once the dealer begins the shuffle.
12. All players have the right to a hand – even if the chips in their possession are insufficient to place the minimum bet.
13. There will be no coaching of any kind.
14. No player may miss a blind, with the exception of a player moving into the small blind position, resulting from a table breaking or balancing.
15. When chips of a smaller denomination have become obsolete, all chips will be chipped up to the next higher color chip denomination before the new level commences.
16. At the start of the final table, all players will have their chip totals announced.
17. If two players are eliminated in the same hand, the player with the most chips going in finishes higher.
18. Players' chips must be counted down, verified, and signed for before leaving the tournament table.
19. In the event of a problem during play, it is the responsibility of the player to bring it to the attention of the floor supervisor immediately. All disputes must be resolved prior to players leaving the table.
20. In any dispute, the decision of Casino Nova Scotia is final.
21. Prize winners are eligible for one prize only. All prizes will be awarded
22. All applicants who are unable to participate must cancel their seat a minimum of 1 hour before the tournament starts to be eligible for a full refund of their entry fee less the administrative fee, providing that they have the receipt of their entry fee, and the refund is given within 6 months of the tournament date. Failure to do so will result in forfeiture of tournament fees. Players arriving late will have their chips placed on the table at the start of the tournament.
23. By entering the tournament, each player also grants permission to Casino Nova Scotia to use their names, photographs and prize winnings for promotional purposes without compensation.
24. Tournament continues until a winner is declared.
25. Each player must protect his/her hand at all times. All players must act in turn.
26. No collusion. Each player is obligated to play in his/her own self-interest. Any information about a folded hand given to an active player must be shared with all active players.
27. Verbalizing by any active player stating "call", "fold", "check", "raise", "all in", or a specified size bet will be bound by that statement.
28. Each participant acknowledges that they will play and be bound by the official rules and procedures of the tournament. Bad Beat Jackpot hands are ineligible during tournament play.
29. A player infraction will result in a 30 minute time out. The player will still be responsible for all blinds and antes.
30. A second infraction will result in disqualification.
